

Information Held

Due to new Data Protection Laws we are required to ask permission to hold your child's information. You have a right to view this information and to know how it will be handled.

This is to inform you when your child moves section within 1st Redditch Scout Group or they leave, we will either transfer their information to the relevant section or the information will be deleted, if kept digitally, or hard copies will be shredded.

We will destroy the information within one month of your child leaving the group unless you state that you wish to have the information returned. Members access will also be removed from our private Facebook page.

Please provide your child's name below, for whom we hold information, and sign to confirm that you agree to us transferring or destroying the information we hold as detailed above.

Child's Name

Parent's Name

Parent's Signature

Date